Within close proximity to both sea Ports and Airports the venue is also very easy to reach via good road and rail links from all over Ireland.

The conference, training suites and meeting rooms are fully equipped and with free car parking are available for hire at competitive daily and weekly rates. The facilities offered are ideal for a range of training courses, workshops, meetings, seminars and conferences, designed to provide a learning environment tailored to meet your business needs.

The facility embraces the latest in audiovisual equipment with dedicated computers, white marker boards, flipcharts, flat screens, printers and multimedia projection equipment. Internet access is also available.

For training organisations, freelance trainers, public or private sector organisations our facilities offer a quality professional environment in which to conduct your business.

A range of accredited open courses are also on offer to cover areas such as Quality Management, Environment, Health & Safety, Food Safety, Leadership & Team Development, Business Excellence and many more as the need is identified including Work Based learning opportunities.

The onsite La Gnosh Restaurant offers a range of nutritious hot and cold foods to meet most tastes. Preferential arrangements are also in place with good quality local hotels should accommodation be a requirement and we would be pleased to make any such arrangements on your behalf.

We look forward to welcoming you to Wilsons Auctions Conference and Training Centre.
